Borrowing a Horse.

In his interesting book, "The Lawyers of Maine," Willis relates an anecdote of Judge George Thatcher, who was noted for his humor. Solicitor Davis and Judge Thatcher, when boys, were neighbors in Barnstable and Yarmouth, Mass. The day after the battle of Bunker Hill the militia of these towns set off for Boston. The boys accompanied the soldiers, Davis acting as squire. A few miles out from Barnstable an order came directing the militia to return home.

In their retreat Thatcher and Davis, tired of their march, mounted an old horse they met on the road, without saddle or bridle. After riding some miles they dismounted and abandoned their steed in the highway.

Many years after Davis, as solicitor general, was prosecuting a horse thief before Judge Thatcher in the county of Kennebec, Me. In the course of the trial the judge leaned over the bench and said in an undertone to the solicitor:

"Davy, this reminds me of the horse you and I stole in Barnstable."

Thunder in Various Regions.

Java is said to be the region of the globe where it thunders ofttest, having thunderstorms 97 days in the year. After it are Sumatra, with 86 days; Hindustan, with 55; Borneo, with 54; the Gold Coast, with 53; and Rio de Janeiro, with 51. In Europe, Italy occupies the first place, with 38 days of thunder, while France and southern Russia have 16 days. Great Britain and Switzerland have each 7 days, and Norway has 4. Thunder is rare at Cairo, being heard only 3 days in the year and extremely rare in northern Turkey and the polar regions.—London Standard.

A Talking Crow.

The latest curiosity in Bethel, Me. is a talking crow which entertains the boys and girls. The bird was found in the woods over a year ago, when young having fallen from its nest and broken a wing. It was taken home and cared for, but showed no inclination to talk until a few months ago. It talks as well as parrots, but favors words containing "o," and "Hello, hello, Moses Orah! Whoa there!" cause the passers by to turn quickly at times.

CAREFUL GREEK PARENTS.

Boys Were Escorted to School Just as Girls Are Now.

The extraordinary care that the Greek boy received in his formative years made his moral training more effective than that inculcated by the most careful of modern parents. His general education, coupled with skillful and continuous physical instruction, produced a moral cultivation very similar and fully as strict as that the Christian father deems necessary for his daughters.

A pedagogue, generally an old and trusted slave, led the boys to school and called for them after it closed, carried the books, looked out for the little boys, kept the older ones from fighting and falling into bad company and had a general oversight of their conduct and street form. He was by no means a schoolmaster or even a private tutor, not even being allowed to enter the school-room. Oftentimes ignorant in the extreme, he was chosen simply because of his loyalty to the family and sometimes, I fear, because he was unfit for any other occupation. Though the butt of the boys' ridicule as well as that of the comic poets and low wits of the day, he did an invaluable service in preventing vicious companionships and keeping pure the minds of those intrusted to his charge.

The child was never sent off to boarding school, but boys attended the day school; town life prevailed. Besides, that sentiment that zealously guarded the boy's purity with a pedagogue from his sixth to his sixteenth year could brook no intermission of personal oversight. Education was essentially private, the state having jurisdiction simply over the moral and not the professional standing of the teacher.—Popular Science Monthly.

Aluminium as Paper.

Experiments with aluminium as a substitute for paper are now under way in France. It is well known that the paper used today in the manufacture of books is not durable. It is now possible to roll aluminium into sheets four-thousandths of an inch in thickness, in which form it weighs less than paper. By the adoption of suitable machinery these sheets can be made even thinner still and can be used for book and writing paper. The metal will not oxidize, is practically fire and water proof, and is indestructible by the jaws of worms.

Bamboo grows very thriflily in California bottom lands, and is found to be a very useful plant.

The seed of many species resembles rice, and is almost as valuable for food. The stock may be used in the building of bridges, fences and barns and in the manufacture of water pipes, furniture and boxes.

THE WASHOE VOTE.

In Washoe county at the last election the Republican nominees for the Legislature were supported by every Democrat, Silver Party man and most of the Populists who were opposed to the election of William M. Stewart to the United States Senate. The Republican was recognized as the only legislative ticket that was opposed to the corporation candidate, and as such received the support of many hundreds of voters who had no political sympathy whatever with that party. The Republican county platform pledged as strongly as language could pledge, the candidates against Stewart. The railroad party recognized that fact and made a bitter but unsuccessful fight to defeat the ticket. The candidates accepted the support of the outside anti-Stewart element, and before the election there was not a shadow of suspicion that any one of them, under any circumstances would vote for the man they were pledged by every principle of honor, manhood and decency to oppose. To vote for him now would be as great and infamous a betrayal of trust as for a Presidential elector to vote for the candidate in opposition to the one who headed the ticket upon which he was elected. Notwithstanding this, it has been lately rumored that the man who was repudiated by such a large majority of voters of Washoe, will receive Republican support from this county in joint convention. We do not believe it, and never will until forced to do so by the official report of the proceedings of that body. We believe the report to be cruel slander upon true and honorable men, who will hurl the lie back into the teeth of these defamers by each and every representative casting his vote in opposition to the only man in or out of the State whom their constituents, or at least every man who voted for them, confidently expected, and still confidently expects them to do.

The traitor that aids and abets a foreign foe sacrifices his life and his name goes down through the ages in dishonor. But the double traitor who etches the very vitals of the commonwealth that protects him and sells those who trusted him into political bondage, as a general rule, is only punished by being permitted to return to private life with the scorn and contempt of his purchasers as well as those whom he has betrayed. If Benedict Arnold deserved a halter, those local traitors deserve, by every principle of right and justice, an even more ignominious death. For such an act of infamy a coat of tar and feathers would be milder punishment than a judicial reprimand for a cold-blooded murder committed for the paltry price of a legislative vote.

The Elko Independent says those responsible for Colonel Calum's presence in Carson should send him home.

Mr. Chinn is an American citizen free to come and go anywhere he pleases. Whether he is in Kalamazoo, Kentucky or Carson is the business of nobody but himself.—Report.

The voters of Nevada are also presumed to be American citizens. They will, however, prove themselves unworthy of the title if they tamely submit to interference with their local affairs by a hired fighter from another State. The people of Nevada should make it some other person's business besides Mr. Chinn's when he essays to thwart their vote by attempts to intimidate representatives electors to voice their sentiments and choice.

TO DAY the two branches of the Legislature will cast their votes for United States Senator in separate session. The proceedings are likely to prove decisive of the final result. If Stewart fails to receive an aggregate majority of the two houses, there is hope for the people of the State, as he has apparently reached the limit of his purchasing and intimidating resources. The honor of the State is trembling in the balance. It means either freedom, self government and an honorable future, or continual slavery to a soulless corporation, with all of the untold evils and humiliation of political bondage. God save the commonwealth of Nevada.

ALEX MCGOWAN of Ormsby has introduced a bill for the repeal of the purity of elections law. If Stewart should be elected the Journal would approve of the repeal of that and all other laws intended for preserving the secrecy and integrity of the ballot. In fact, we might as well do away with the ballot box. If the voice of the people is to be reverberated by the sell-out legislators, elections will be a farce and it would be more than farcical to retain the machinery conducting such ridiculous travesties.

The Appeal constantly maintained that Chinn was sent here by the Democratic Committee and now that Chairman T. K. Jones has repudiated him it still remains silent, willing its readers should still labor under the false impression given heretofore. Why does it not correct the statement?—News.

Because making misstatements is in the direct line of all of the Stewart organs, while correcting them is not.

The Elko Tidings complains of being misrepresented by the Carson Appeal and says: "While we have supported Stewart, we have not lied about and misrepresented those who chose to support Francis G. Newlands." That's what the matter Mr. Tidings. You can't help the Stewart cause without lying about everybody and everything. Have you only just found that out?

They Should be Herded.

Legislators, after having sold their votes, are invariably "herded" afterwards to see that they maintain their integrity by remaining bought. This is a wise precaution upon the part of the purchaser and one which no sensible or "honorable" member has a right to object to. The buyer has paid his money and has an undoubted right to see that no higher bidder or inter-mediator interferes with the delivery of the goods. It is a purely business transaction. The purchaser holds a chattel mortgage on the boughten member and is entitled to his custody and possession until he lifts the lien by casting his vote in accordance with his contract. In the meantime he need not feel ashamed of being placed under the guardianship of Harry Flannery or any other gentleman whom the purchaser chooses to appoint, to prevent him from falling into evil company which might cause him to stray from the straight and narrow path which leads to the honorable cancellation of the mortgage.

A Vegetable Caterpillar.

The most extraordinary object I have ever seen is the New Zealand vegetable caterpillar. The caterpillar is a parasite creeper which first destroys its forest host and then crushes it to death and, usurping its skeleton, becomes a tree itself. If the caterpillar is dug up, it is found to be springing not from a seed, but from the head of a perfectly formed caterpillar.

It is supposed by some that the caterpillar, which on dissection proves to be internally the exact counterpart of its living insect relative, swallows the tiny caterpillar while living, and burrowing into the ground becomes, instead of a chrysalis, the germinating home of the seed, which by some agency, turns its unfortunate foster mother into wood.

Others, however, contend the caterpillar itself is produced by the caterpillar, in support of their theory that if springing from a seed the shoot would grow out of different parts of the caterpillar instead of invariably growing out of the head.

The insect vegetable is yellowish, about four inches long, and is fully extended. I have seen them freshly dug up, and others that had been kept for years, and all had the appearance of a perfect insect carved in wood.—Pearson's Weekly

Tanning by Electricity.

By the introduction of electricity into the process the period required for the tanning of leathers has been very materially reduced. In the final process of unhairing the pelts and skins it has been demonstrated that if a current of small density be passed through the solution of lime and arsenic in which they are usually soaked the process is so hastened that the skins are ready for the mechanical removal of the hair in several hours, whereas in the ordinary way it would require several days. The passage of the electric current appears to carry the solution into the pores of the hide in a very remarkable manner. After the hair is removed and the skins placed in the proper tanning solutions a weak current is again passed through the solution, which has a similar accelerating effect. The figures of time required for tanning by this process are, with bark liquor, about 12 days for cowhide and one-half to three days for calfskin and one day for kangaroo.—Philadelphia Record.

Effective Reflecting.

"It is so sudden!" exclaimed the fair haired girl, who had just received a proposal to merge her identity in that of a would be protector. "You must give me time to reflect."

"No, no," retorted the diplomatic young man. "One whose dazzling beauty makes a mirror ashamed of itself should never go into the reflecting business. Let this solitary diamond do the reflecting."

And the records of the license clerk show that it was even so. —Chicago News

Copper in Cheese.

Scientific investigations show that the green color for which Parmesan and other Italian cheeses are remarkable is due to the fact that the acid milk is allowed to stand in copper vessels, 25 samples of green Parmesan cheese showing for each two pounds of cheese from 8 to 3.3 grains of copper.

STATE LEGISLATURE

THE NINETEENTH SESSION.

Eight Day—A Vote on an Appeal From a Decision of the Chair Indicates a Tie in the House on Senator.

CARSON CITY, Jan. 23, 1899.

The most startling episode in Carson life was the sudden death, yesterday afternoon, of Hon. Thomas Stone, Deputy Secretary of State. He attended to his regular duties of his office on Saturday and went home to his supper apparently in his usual excellent health. During the evening he complained of an oppressive feeling in his chest and pains in his head, but Sunday morning he was out on the street, although still feeling unwell. Returning home, his unfavorable symptoms induced the sending for a physician and finally at 2 p.m. death suddenly and unexpectedly supervened from heart failure.

Deceased was 65 years of age, a native of New York and leaves a wife and three children in Carson. He was Deputy State Controller during the four years term of Controller LaGrave, recently concluded, and was then made Deputy Secretary of State. He was Senator from Elko county in 1877-79 and was at one time Superintendent of the Elko county public schools, also Principal of the State University when it was located at Elko. A kind husband and father, faithful public officer, good citizen and a true friend, his sudden demise will be deeply regretted by all who knew him.

SENATE.

Livingston introduced a bill supplementary to and amendatory of the existing law relative to marriage and divorce. Referred to Judiciary committee.

By Flannigan, Senate Bill No. 6, to terminate litigation, where a majority of the Justices of the Supreme Court remains disqualified to hear and determine an appeal from a District Court for a period of two and one half years. Same reference.

Harley gave notice of a bill regulating losses of beneficiaries of fully paid up fire insurance policies.

The Governor's veto message was received and read relative to amending section 8 of the act to provide for selection and sale of public lands which have been or may hereafter be granted to the State of Nevada.

Mr. Comins introduced a bill to fix the State tax levy on all taxable property, including mines, at $1 on each $100 and distribute the same to the proper funds. Referred to ways and means committee.

Senate concurrent resolution No. 2, by Comins, on the death of Hon. Thomas N. Stone, late Deputy State Controller and late Deputy Secretary of State of the State of Nevada.

WHEREAS, it has pleased the Creator of the universe to take from our midst our respected fellow citizen, Thomas N. Stone, and

WHEREAS, his sudden death, after an illness of a few hours, naturally augments the sad memories incident to the death of a worthy and useful citizen, therefore be it

Resolved, by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, that in the death of the late Thomas N. Stone, society has lost a valuable member, the State of Nevada an efficient public servant and humanity a steadfast friend. A worthy citizen of the Republic, he loved right and liberty, and his integrity and gentle manners endeared him to all who knew him. His life was all that could be desired in any walk of life, and the Legislature of Nevada, in common with all the good people who knew him in life deeply deplore his loss and condole with his stricken family in their sad bereavement.

Adopted and Senate adjourned till to-morrow.

ASSEMBLY.

After the usual preliminaries of opening the Assembly were concluded, Mr. Tremont of Eureka arose to a question of privilege and stated that in view of serious charges having been made by the Carson News against one member of the House personally and others indirectly, he believed that a thorough investigation should be had and in justice to all the matters charged should be sifted to the very bottom, and he therefore moved that a committee be appointed for that purpose and that the committee be requested to act and report at the earliest possible moment.

Mr. Tremont then sent to the clerk's desk a copy of the Carson News of January 20th, containing an article charging Wallace and others with purchasing and bribing members to vote for Stewart, and directly charging that Assemblyman Leidy had been seen to receive a paper from Wallace which he subsequently signed and that the paper purported to be a contract disposing of his vote on U. S. Senator. That the member had been a few hours before against Stewart, but later had changed his position, and that he had received $50 as a retainer and a promise of more, besides a position in Washington. The charges also stated that other members had visited San Francisco on passes from the railroad company and were doubtless entertained by the company while in the city.

After the article had been read the speaker appointed the following committee:

Messrs. Tremont, Hancock, Kirman, Hodgkinson and Patterson.

The Assembly then adjourned until 3 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Upon reconvening Mr. Tremont asked that the committee be given the power to subpoena witnesses and procure papers connected with the case. This was ordered under a motion.

Mr. Paul then moved that the committee be enlarged to seven members in order that all political parties should have a representation. The motion carried and Messrs. Paul and Gedney were added to the committee.

The next important matter was the presentation of an anti-Stewart petition from Lyon county by Mr. Pitt of Humboldt. The petition was addressed to the Senator and Assemblyman from Lyon county.

The speaker ruled the petition out of order on the ground that it was addressed to individuals and not the Legislature.

Mr. Pitt appealed from the decision of the chair, and it was evident that a test vote was about to take place as to the strength of the Stewart and anti-Stewart forces. There was considerable stir, and the members, as well as those in the crowded lobby, were all on the qui vive to find out what had for the past several days been kept such a profound secret.

A roll call was ordered on Mr. Pitt's appeal and the chair was sustained, but the strength of either side was now before the public. The vote was as follows:

Yeas—Bradshaw, Coryell, Dady, Hancock, Henley, Kinney, Kirman, Leidy, McGowan, Patterson, Raftice, Strossider, Tremont, Wilkerson—14.

Nays—Armstrong, Blakelee, Condon, Dooley, Gedney, Gillespie, Hobbs, Hodgkinson, McMillan, Mesoham, Pacey, Paul, Pitt, Spindel—14.

Van Etten absent; Speaker Allen not voting.

This is thought to be a show of the hands on the Senatorial question. Van Etten will vote with the Republicans, while Speaker Allen will vote with the Silver men. This divides the House equally. It is thought, however, that Armstrong will vote with the Stewart men and cast his vote to-day through a misunderstanding of the question.

Little business was transacted to-day outside of routine matters. The contest to-morrow is looked forward to with great interest. The balloting for Senator will occur at 12 o'clock noon.

NEW HUSBAND'S CAPTIVITY.

Mr. Frank R. Williams of Churchill county and Miss Emma Cambridge were married at the residence of Dr. Patterson last Sunday evening, Rev. G. E. Jones officiating. Both the groom and bride are well known here. Mr. Williams was at one time a resident of Reno, and Mrs. Williams was here for some years as a student at the State University.

The wedding was a quiet one, only a few intimate friends being present. Mr. Cressler of Cedarville acted as groomsmen and Miss Stella Linscott as bridesmaid. After the marriage service the company retired to the dining room where the mirth that always prevails at a wedding found ample play over the sumptuous repast that had been prepared in honor of the happy couple. They departed for Mr. Williams' home in Churchill county last evening.

The JOURNAL joins their many friends in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

All people are interested in a new case that has recently cropped up in Reno, and they have good reason for being so. This case contains many striking features. It is Mr. F. P. Dann's show case on Virginia street, down by the Iron bridge. It is very beautiful, his new window display of all that is modern in photography. There one may see large opalotypes, small autotypes and lovely porcelains. Just think! Artistic photographs on genuine porcelain. And what do you think of this? He makes photographs on handkerchiefs—like handkerchiefs. What more appropriate present could be imagined than one of these with your photo on it?

Old Time Firemen.
Fifty years and more ago, when New York and many other cities relied upon the members of their volunteer fire department to put out fires, the ambition of each company was to be first at a fire and most efficient in subduing the flames.

One old time fireman says that nothing
now can rouse in him the excitement which never failed to come at the sound of the fire alarm.

"Business, meals and health were of small account compared to a call to join the fire engine," this veteran says, with a retrospective sigh. "The night of my wedding there was a fire, but it came right in the middle of the marriage service and I had to miss it. However, there was one early the next morning while we were eating breakfast, and I went.
No bride was so exacting as to expect to keep her husband at her side when the fire department had use for him."

There were no salaries in those days save those paid to chief engineers. The firemen paid for the painting and decorating of their honored engines and for such repairs as were needed from time to time. In the days before cities were divided into districts the volunteer firemen, added to active service on the field of the conflagration, frequently did a good deal of preliminary exercise in the way of running before they discovered where their services were used.
